The declared captain OR co-captain must be on boat registered during the tournament day when the fish is caught to be eligible to weigh a fish. All winnings will be made payable to the registered captain. This Captain and Co-Captain will be allowed to be a crew member on other boats but, WHILE ON THE OTHER BOAT, can't weigh a fish in their name or boat name.

Each boat entered can only be registered once.

There is no restriction as to the number of people allowed aboard each boat during competition hours.

All participants must comply with NC Wildlife laws and USCG regulations.

The tournament committee reserves the right to refuse an entry into the tournament.

Each boat will be allowed to weigh in only two fish during this tournament.

The eligible species for competition purposes is king mackerel.

This is a sporting event. All fish must be taken on a rod and reel. No hand lines or electric reels will be allowed. Down riggers will be permitted as fishing line carriers only. If a down rigger is used in the manner of a fishing rod/reel combination, it must be counted as one of the six allowable lines.

A boat may be substituted for mechanical repairs only by notification to the tournament committee the day before being fished.

Any advertiser, sponsor, board, or committee member entering the tournament in compliance with these rules is eligible for any and all prizes.

Information entered on the registration form is official and any changes must be initialed by the participant.

It is the sole responsibility of the crew aboard each boat to off-load and present its catch for weighing. Captain or Co-Captain must accompany the fish to the weigh station.

All fish must be brought to Chasin Tales by the boat catching same under its own power. Fish must be unloaded at designated docks only. Fish cannot be transported over land.

A signed, sworn affidavit will be required of each individual who places a fish in competition for tournament prizes.

All prize winners are subject to polygraph at the discretion of the tournament board members. If requested, the angler must submit to a test within 48 hours after the fish has been weighed.

All King Mackerel submitted for weigh-in must be in fresh, edible condition and caught that tournament day. No mutilated fish will be accepted for weigh-in. Mutilation is defined as any damage which may impair the fish's fighting ability. The Weight Master shall immediately notify an angler of any questionable fish submitted for weigh-in. Eligibility of fish shall be immediately determined. No frozen fish will be accepted for weigh-in under any circumstances. No fish with stomach contents other than its natural food will be accepted for weigh-in. All fish weighed in become property of the Atlantic Beach King Mackerel Saltwater Slam.

All protests concerning the determination of tournament prize winners shall be made to the tournament board and shall be accompanied by $500 cash. All protests shall be made no later than one hour after the last fish has been weighed. In the event that a protest is upheld by the tournament committee, the $500 cash deposit will be returned. In the event that the protest is not upheld, the $500 cash deposit will become the property of the Atlantic Beach King Mackerel Saltwater Slam. All decisions made by the tournament committee shall be final.

At the time of weigh in, a team may protest the weight of their fish and such protest shall be accompanied by a $500 protest fee which shall be paid within 1 hour of the protest. In connection with the protest the team SHOULD NOT sign the weigh ticket. Once the weigh ticket is signed the weight is FINAL and no protest will be accepted. If a protest is filed on the weight of the fish, the fish will be segregated and placed under the control of the weigh master until a member of the tournament committee can be present to witness the reweighing of the fish. A member of the team protesting the weight shall stay with the fish until the fish is reweighed. The $500 protest fee will be returned, and the official weight of the fish will be changed. If the committee does not uphold the protest the $500 cash deposit will be kept by the Atlantic Beach King Mackerel Saltwater Slam.

A boat entry can only win one major cash prize per tournament. (Major cash prize is considered first place – fifteenth place).

In the event that two or more king mackerel are the same weight, the winner shall be determined by the earliest weigh-in time.

The winning fish and all fish entered and or donated become the exclusive property of the tournament committee.

To qualify for a ladies, junior (15 & under), or senior (55 & older) prize, they must be on the boat at the time the fish is caught, accompany the fish to weigh in, and sign the weight ticket.

Any breaking of the rules will result in disqualification from the tournament. Disqualifications will result in forfeiture of winnings.

The Tournament Committee will determine or interpret all rules.
